Webinar on the topic- "Women Entrepreneur: A Catalyst to Change the World"

Date: 9 June, 2021

English Department and Women Cell of the College organised a webinar on the topic- "Women Entrepreneur: A Catalyst to Change the World". Mrs Sangeeta Lahoti, Director, Authentic India Pvt. Ltd. at Manesar (Haryana) was the resource person of the webinar. She elaborated on the topic by giving the instances of successful women who have proved their mettle in different fields they entered in. She motivated students to make their goal first and then make relentless efforts to reach to that. Obstacles will come their way but with strong determination they will tide over them. Students also discussed their individual goals with the resource person and way to achieve these. Principal Dr. (Mrs) Suresh Boora thanked the guest for her valuable insights and further added that women entrepreneurs not only significantly add towards the earnings of families but also contribute for the sustainable development of the nation that every nation needs today. She further added that students should develop their skills to start their own ventures and become job givers not the job seekers. Dr Seemant and Dr Parmila organised the webinar. Ninety Four students remained present with their active participation.
