

Session 2019-2020

- An educational tour of 38 students had gone to Kullu-Manali, Himachal Pradesh. That is organized by geography department of about 3 days from 7th October to 10th October. The general aim of this field trip is to study and get a clear understanding about the socio-economic structure, educational structure, and land morphology of the region.

- An extension lecture is given by Dr. Sushma Malik works at Melbourne, Australia on topic 'Scope of geography in foreign countries' on 7 November 2019. She explained about the opportunities for Geography available in foreign countries regarding higher studies as well as to make career.

- An extension lecture on 'Geoinformatics Technologies' was organized by Geography Department of College on 6 February, 2020. Mr. Ravindra Nath Tiwari & Mr. Devender Singh, Assistant Professors at Netra Institute of Geoinformatics & Technologies, New Delhi were the speakers. They explained about remote sensing and GIS tools and techniques that how it helps for planning, monitoring, and decision making for solving the world problems. They also enlightened about job opportunities and career guidance.

