

Program Output of B.A. Economics

Microeconomics

This Course is designed to provide basic understanding of micro economic concepts, behaviour of economic agent-consumer, producer, and factor owner – price fluctuations in the market. The module includes in this course deals with the concepts of consumer behaviour, production, market, factor pricing and welfare Economics.

Macroeconomics

This course equips the students to understand systems facts and the latest theoretical developments in Macroeconomics. The module will help students to develop critical thinking skills and demonstrate an ability to identify alternate and formulate solutions to problems.

Economic Development and International Trade

The objectives of the course are to equip the students with the theoretical, empirical and policy issues relating to the society, polity and economy of India. The course in particular, has been prepared on the background of the globalisation process and its diverse ramifications on the knowledge economy. The module is focused on identifying key indicators of measures of economic change, growth and development. In addition, aid students to arrive at an understanding of theories of international trade and to examine the impact of the trade policies on the dynamic gains.